

2024 Retrospective

The baSE project had achieved a great year of progress. With invaluable support from our partners, we're crafting strategic solutions for concrete skills development in the Proximity and Social Economy Ecosystem.

1 baSE events

2nd SC meeting baSE project

The baSE project's second SC meeting in Athens focused on finalizing the MOOC platform, certification processes, and communication strategies, with plans for launch in February 2025.

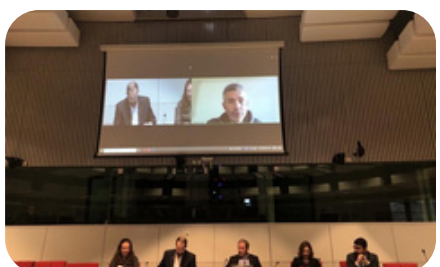

Enterprising for Tomorrow

The third edition of the Enterprising for Tomorrow conference, held in Iasi on April 17, 2024, featured 36 speakers and discussions on key social economy topics, with over 1,000 participants and 60 partners involved.

Co-construction of a training catalogue on green, digital and inclusive transitions

A roundtable was held on September 12, 2024, in Namur, by ConcertES and Liege university, where stakeholders from the social economy discussed co-creating a training catalogue on green, digital, and inclusive transitions.

Diesis Digital Day

The Diesis Digital Day 2024 on November 27 featured the baSE project's presentation of the SocioComp Framework.

How can we give citizens back the power to act on the challenges of ecological transition?

On November 20, 2024, AgroParisTech and ESS France hosted a roundtable on ecological transition, introducing the baSE project and engaging students in discussions with social economy professionals.

Building an umbrella organisation for social entrepreneurship and promoting SE advocacy?

Event held in Ljubljana on May 27, 2024, in collaboration with DOBA Business school, focused on establishing an umbrella organization for social entrepreneurship, with discussions on sustainable funding, international networking, and stakeholder engagement.

Bridging the skills gap to empower the social economy and to boost circular economy.

AgroParisTech redacted this article to contribute to the International Social Innovation Research Conference in Bern in September 2nd and 4th, 2024

SAVE
THE DATE!

1st baSE
policy lab:
January 28th

Social Economy Insider 2

The Social Economy Insider magazine, an initiative of the baSE project co-created with our diverse network of key partners, is dedicated to exploring the latest trends in the social economy across Europe. The third edition, titled Mainstreaming Business Models for Sustainability, was released in November 2024, offering fresh perspectives on integrating sustainable practices within mainstream business frameworks.

Click here to read it!

3 Trainings

The baSE project provides a comprehensive training catalogue addressing the needs of national clusters in the social economy. It aligns with the European Competence Frameworks focusing on three transition areas: Digital, Green, and Fair & Inclusive.

Synthesis report 4

The Synthesis Report identifies, at European level, the needs of SEOs in terms of reskilling and upskilling to effectively face the twin transition and the inclusiveness challenge - separated in smaller documents to facilitate your reading!

Partners

Send your thoughts to baseproject4skills@gmail.com

Co-funded by the European Union